Thomas Bunn Heritage House

Enjoy a taste of quiet country living in our charming 150 year old heritage home built in 1862 by stone mason Samuel Taylor for Thomas Bunn, a member of Louis Riel's Council. Located within minutes of Selkirk. We offer a self-contained, fully equipped three bedroom home, sleeps six. Included are all the ingredients you will need to make yourself a hearty breakfast.

The grounds are spacious with lots of room to roam and explore. Walking trails, volleyball, horseshoes and many other fun activities. We are located on the shores of the Red River.

Many attractions are located close by such as the South Beach Casino, Marine Museum in Selkirk, Lower Fort Garry, Oak Hammock Marsh, Patricia and Grand Beaches.

We can provide information on self guided historical tours and historical Geocaching in the area. Children are most welcome. Pets are welcome provided under control. After a day of activities you can relax in our spacious screened porch which also has a bar-b-que for your enjoyment.
